Home Learning: Will go out on Wednesday for return the following Monday.

Other ways to help at home:
 Share books with your child. Encourage your child to get dressed independently.

Reminders:

- Please make sure your child brings their book bag into school every day. You are free to access our school library in the foyer area on a daily basis. Feel free to write any comments in your child's reading diary about the books that they have read. Your child will also receive a 'reading' book once a week which will be changed on a Friday. This will give you time to share the book with your child and explore some of the questions provided on their bookmark.
- Please make sure all items of uniform and personal belongings are named.
- Please make sure your child is dressed appropriately for learning outdoors every day, especially during this cold weather.
- Your child will also need a named bottle of water in school every day.
- Don't forget Busy Fingers is on a Monday morning and all parents are welcome to stay. As part of developing your child's independence, for the rest of the week it is important that they come into the cloakroom on their own and learn to manage their belonging independently.

Special Book

One child will be selected each week to bring in a selection of items that are special to them. These items will then be put on display in the classroom for one week. A book will be sent home with this child to record what their special items are and why they are so important to them. This will be sent home on a Friday and should be returned on a Monday morning. During the week your child has been chosen, a member of their family are welcome to come into school to read a story to the class. Please let your child's class teacher know when this would be convenient for you.

This experience enables the child to develop their confidence to speak and listen to others, and ask appropriate questions. It also encourages a sense of responsibility and respect for other people's property and their own.

Wow Moments and Learning Journals

Thank you for the wow moments sheets you have returned already. We are displaying them in our entrance area and then will put them in the children's Learning Journals. Please continue to send them in as we would love to hear what your child is doing at home.

Further copies of the wow moments sheets are available from a wallet kept in the entrance to the Reception classrooms.

During Busy Fingers each Monday, parents will be able to look at their child's Learning Journal with their child. Every week, a group of children will have the opportunity to share their Learning Journals with you. This will rotate using their colour groups. Your input and voice on your child's learning is very important to us and we want to document this in their Learning Journals too. After you have shared their Journal, please fill out one of the speech bubbles provided. You may want to comment on the learning you have seen, something you were proud of, something your child has enjoyed learning about or any learning that has taken place at home.

Thank you for your continued support.
